The von Trapp Children

UK TOUR 2007

The Sound of Music captured the hearts of millions when the film debuted in 1965. Forty years later, the picture is still captivating our imaginations.

Now, for the first time, the real von Trapp Children are making their debut in the UK with a 10-date UK Tour in May 2007. Meet Sofia (18), Melanie (16), Amanda (15), and Justin (12), the great great-grandchildren of Captain von Trapp, father of the famous singing family whose story captivated the world in the musical The Sound of Music.

Already a sensation in the US, the children have become household names with appearances on Good Morning America, Fox News, and Today (CBS). In the press there have been major features in LIFE, New York Times, People and many more...

Performing a variety of folk and classical songs from various European and American traditions, as well as timeless pieces from The Sound Of Music, this is a must see event for all fans of The Sound Of Music and musicals. Narrating the journey of their Great-Grandparents as portrayed in the hit musical, amongst the numerous highlights are Do Re Mi, The Lonely Goatherd and My Favorite Things, all from The Sound Of Music, as well as a wide repertoire spanning from West Side Story to Oliver!

Summer, 2003 brought an historic event for the children, as they portrayed the beloved characters based on their grandfather and three of their great aunts in the North Carolina Theater production of The Sound Of Music in Raleigh, NC. That production broke several box office records for the company. The show then moved to the Aladdin Resort in Las Vegas for a week.

Filed footage of the children's 2005 performance at the Hollywood Bowl has been included in 20th Century Fox's 40th anniversary DVD release of the movie as well. The children were also named outstanding singing group at the 2006 Young Artist Awards.
